MEETINGS IN SHANGRI-LA

Ojai Valley Inn Offers an Ideal Meeting Destination with Unique Venues and Activities

OJAI, CALIF. – Ojai Valley Inn’s conference center showcases a total of 35,000 square feet of meeting and function space of unparalleled beauty and state-of-the-art functionality. Two ballrooms and beautiful indoor and outdoor function spaces resemble a Spanish village with red tile roof and decorative cupolas, white hand-troweled walls accented by elegant quatrefoil windows, carved wood pergolas, and an outdoor saltillo-tiled paseo with fountains and fireplaces. In addition to the physical meeting space, the Inn is an attractive option for those seeking a myriad of teambuilding activities.

Two Ballrooms

The 4,800-square-foot Anacapa Ballroom enjoys ample natural light and a flexible floor plan that allows the space to break into eight smaller sections. While the 6,000-square-foot Hacienda Ballroom is large enough for receptions for 350 guests, a fireplace gives it a uniquely residential feel. Both ballrooms are designed in the Spanish Colonial style with terra cotta tiles, graceful arches and warm, butter-yellow walls accented by hand-stenciled details and rich walnut wainscoting. Axminster of London wool carpeting in vibrant Mediterranean colors completes the palette. Wireless internet access and a full-service business center provide the infrastructure to meet any group’s needs.

Pre-Function Spaces Resemble a Spanish Village

More than 11,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor pre-function space, an outdoor paseo of additional fireplaces, fountains, wrought iron chandeliers and sconces, and views of the surrounding mountains make the conference center a beautiful setting for group functions.

The Farmhouse

The Farmhouse at Ojai Valley Inn is an expansive 20,000 square foot culinary and event center that marries world-class food culture with indoor/outdoor gatherings. The Farmhouse is a connected natural campus of distinct spaces: The Kitchen, The Library, The Lawn, and The Great Room —an expansive 8500-square-foot multi-use, ballroom space. The wood and glass barn-inspired structures feature a natural palette of forest browns and greys, redwood siding, 25-foot ceilings, and exposed wooden trusses. The Kitchen is designed for open demo format, offering up to 80 guests a front row seat to the chefs in action, while the adjacent Library and garden courtyard, each seating up to 20, will serve as private dining and meeting areas. Additionally, 11’-6” foot high sliding doors will open dramatically to The Lawn with expanded outdoor seating, a landscaped garden of native olive trees and lavender, an organic vegetable and herb garden, and a majestic 100 year-old Oak tree anchoring the center focal point.

Executive Spaces

The Libbey Boardroom (named for Edward Drummond Libbey, heir to the Libbey glass fortune, who built the Ojai Valley Inn & Spa in 1923) seats 12 in a handsome room with leather captain’s chairs and a flat screen plasma television. A covered patio provides a private space for refreshments and meeting breaks. The Garden Room offers natural light and cozy atmospheres and the freshly renovated Nordhoff Room boasts resort views, custom cathedral ceiling and is richly appointed.

A Tuscan Escape From The Everyday

A 10,407 sq. ft. private estate, Casa Elar is an inspired and most exclusive setting for groups of up to 10 guests. The five-bedroom Tuscan-style residence is discretely tucked away on the resort grounds behind separate street and gate entrances and is staffed to specification. Awash in the comforts of residential opulence, Casa Elar features Santa Barbara sandstone, Italian travertine and African mahogany. Appointments include a sprawling great room, distinguished library, dual master suites, private massage room that opens onto a roof garden, back terrace framed by vistas of the Topa Topa Mountains with a sparkling pool, Jacuzzi, and dining area with BBQ and wood fire pizza oven. The air is scented by myriad Italian olive and fruit trees in addition to mounds of rosemary, multiple lavender varieties and blooming roses.
